

House Resolution No. 2931

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Sue Jameson of King City has attained considerable distinction in light of her efforts with ACtion Management and Consulting Services, a vocational calling which she will draw to a close on May 6, 2005, after four and a half years of service; and

Whereas, Sue Jameson brought to her professional labors at ACtion Management and Consulting Services a wealth of knowledge, skills, and experiences which she had garnered earlier as the owner and operator of several businesses in King City, including the Dairy Queen and an implement dealership, and as an employee of businesses in the Chillicothe area and of Citizens Bank and Trust in King City; and

Whereas, Sue Jameson is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of Ken Jameson, pastor of First Christian Church in King City; and

Whereas, Sue Jameson also is the loving mother of four sons, David, Mike, Doug, and Sam, and the grandmother of three granddaughters in Colorado and a grandson in southern Missouri; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should acknowledge momentous occasions in the lives of such outstanding citizens as Sue Jameson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the significant career achievements garnered down through the years by Sue Jameson and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Sue Jameson of King City, Missouri.
